ATTENDEE

With the opportunity to partake in the Advocacy Summit, I was able to hone my advocacy skills as an aspiring health educator. I now feel I have the confidence to show up, speak up, stand up and act on behalf of the future of health education.

ATTENDEE
Belinda Stallings-Fields, Medical Services Corps Officer

Advocating and advancing comprehensive climate policy was an exhilarating experience... In such a brief amount of time, I learned so much. This summit made it clear why SOPHE is an established, leading public health organization.
